CLEMONS REAL ESTATE LLC

Alex brings nearly 15 years of the financial services and tech industry into identifying, vetting, and adding value to multi family real estate transactions. He assists his clients in identifying opportunities, as well as maximizing value in the disposition. As an investor himself, Alex knows the Kansas City Market well. Whether on or off market, he can assist in helping buyers find sellers who want or need to sell their properties.

RECENT ASSIGNMENT

Alex recently represented an out of state Buyer of a fourteen unit apartment complex in the urban core, which was purchased for $1mm. He assisted his client in sourcing both property management and lender relationships, and was their on site resource for the entire Due Diligence Process. This asset was placed under contract and closed through the COVID-19 Pandemic.
